

Becomes Knights' hit king

Ewing 12, Princeton 8
PRINCETON — Ewing erased an 8-7 deficit with five runs in the final three innings to defeat Princeton.

The Blue Devils (12-6) got three hits from shortstop Eric Condor and center fielder Kyle McGuire belted a home run.

Princeton (4-16) scored five runs to take the lead in the fourth inning before Ewing rallied.

Hightstown 5, Neptune 1
NEPTUNE — Solid pitching and two RBIs each from Nick Luberto and Edgar Hernandez carried Hightstown to a victory yesterday over Neptune.

The Rams got on the board first with a two run second inning and extended their lead to 5-0 with three more runs in the fifth.

Neptune's only run was driven in by Rob Green in the bottom of the fifth.

Cinnaminson 6, Delran 0
DELTRAN — Mike Cooper pitched a complete game and homered for the Bears.
